PRAGUE EXTENSION via OVERNIGHT TRAIN & RETURN FLIGHT FROM PRAGUE

August 17 - 20, 2015

OPTION 1

August 17 Monday	After Farewell Dinner, late evening departure via overnight train to Prague
August 18 Tuesday	Prague. Morning arrival in Prague and, after breakfast, sightseeing tour starting at Wenceslas Square, the heart of the city. Founded in 1348 as an important link between the Old Town and the New Town fortifications, Wenceslas Square, also known as the "horse market", is now a busy center for shopping. A short walk away, situated on Old Town Square, you will discover the most popular tourist attraction in Prague, the Astronomical Clock with its intricate representations of the zodiac and the rural heritage of the people. Across the Square, you will be awestruck by the greatest dominant feature of the entire historical heart of Prague, the towers of the Tyn Church. Afternoon hotel check-in and free time.
August 19 Wednesday	Prague. A walking tour of Prague Castle and area - one of the largest and most magnificent castles in Europe. You will see the Gallery, Gardens, Spanish Hall,

	the majestic St. Vitus Cathedral and the Golden Lane, where medieval alchemists tried to turn lead into gold.
August 20 Thursday	Return USA. Morning departure from Prague on a flight back to LA arriving the same day.
